FIRE DELAYS MANCHURIA

(Associated Press Cable.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 17.—Six hundred tons of cotton loaded into the afterhold of the Pacific Mail steamer Manchuria caught fire this afternoon and blazed for hours before the flames could be extinguished.

The firemen finally managed to kill the blaze by flooding the afterhold with water. The fire-fighters were forced to work from all parts of the ship in their efforts to get the flames under control.

Spontaneous combustion is said to have been responsible for the fire which at times threatened to become general. The prompt flooding of the hold saved the Manchuria.

Officials of the Pacific Mail Company say that the ship will not be able to sail for Honolulu and the Orient as scheduled Thursday and could give no information regarding the probable date of her departure tonight.

The ship itself is said to have escaped with little damage. The damage to the cotton has not yet been estimated. The staple was on its way to Japanese cotton mills.

TRICKERY CHARGED IN CHINA'S FINANCIAL DEAL.

PEKING, China, March 17.—Representatives of the four Powers backing the most recent loan to this government are alarmed at the outlook financially. They declare that the financial policy adopted by the republicans is dangerous in the extreme, and that there has been trickery or worse in connection with the negotiations that preceded the present loan of five million dollars.

It has become known that the finances of the government are in a chaotic state, and that discontent is widespread. The nation is said to be split on this question. There is, however, no fear of any anti-foreign demonstration here or elsewhere.

All signs point to future serious political struggles before the confederation is completed. Tang Shao Yi has left here on his way to Nanking.

NEW YORK JUDGE

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 17.—Judge Rosalsky, who presided over the retrial of Foulke E. Brandt, narrowly escaped death by a bomb found in his private office.

He sent the bomb to the police inspector, whose examination of it resulted in its explosion. The police inspector was injured.

Brandt was recently acquitted of a charge of burglarizing the Schiff home, after serving one year of a 5-year sentence that followed his plea of guilty. After Governor Dix had declined a pardon Brandt's conviction was declared illegal by the Supreme Court and a new trial ordered.

Brandt was Schieff's valet. His plea for pardon was on the ground that he pleaded guilty to save a woman's honor.

FEDERAL GENERAL IS ORDERED TO BE SHOT.

EL PASO, Texas, March 17.—General Pancho Villa, commander of a large detachment of federal troops, has been captured and ordered shot by the rebels.

News of his threatened execution was brought to this city yesterday by three American refugees.

They reported that General Pancho Villa was captured in a battle with Gomez's troops near Pallacio a week ago, and that thirty-eight Federals and ten rebels were killed in the engagement.

UNIONS REFUSE WAGE ADVANCE.

BOSTON, Mass., March 17.—Union labor representatives today refused to accept the 5 per cent. advance offered by the mill operators. of Lawrence, Mass., and the conference adjourned with a demand of 15 percent. increase of pay.

It was learned here, however, that there is some prospect of a compromise being effected and it is thought that many of the woolen mill workers will return tomorrow morning when the whistle blows.

REAR ADMIRAL

MELVILLE IS DEAD.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 18.—George Wallace Melville, Rear Admiral, United States Navy, died here last night.

Rear Admiral Melville was appointed to the Navy as assistant engineer in July, 1861, and served through the Civil War. He was famous as an Arctic explorer, having sailed with De Long in the ill-fated Jeannette, and was one of the few survivors of that expedition into the North.

OUTLAWS STILL

SECURE IN MOUNTAINS.

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 17.—The Allens, leaders of the band of moon-shiners who shot down the officers of the court here some days ago, are still at large defying the State troops which have been sent against them. They are hiding in an almost inaccessible part of the hills near here and can only be dislodged with a fight. Four more troops of militia have been ordered here.

REPORT A CANARD.

EL PASO, Texas, March 17.—The report that the insurgents had captured General Villa after a hand fight has proved to have been a canard sent out by the insurgents.

Tenants in the Gorham building in Cleveland, O., were forced to flee in their night clothes to escape from fire.
